INTRODUCTION

It is alleged that 'love' is the contribution of the basic media to the widespread emergence of today's youth-including women. This makes it true. But this is not the whole truth. Love has been around since before advent of television, magazines, books, movies, etc. The menu has been romantic, even in the tanks, village temples, ponds, riverbanks, street, shops, and marketplaces, are all in full bloom here. However, it is true that in this day and age when chances of male-female intimacy increased tremendously

Love is the attraction that appears between men and women with similar mind setup. Apart from this, appearance men and women also play a major role in some romantic relationships. In other words, outward appearance alone is basis of love. So, in general, love is a combination of both physical and mind attractions. Young people often fall in love only because of physical attractions. If there is both physical and mental attraction the true love gets sublime. According to the rules for love in Indian astrology the 'Love Affair' between men and women is researched in this article.

Love in Tamil Literature

Love is a force of attraction. They are impressed to each other due to attraction and choose their spouse for themselves. Marriage is the union of two minds. We can learn how to combine two minds with a short song in Sangam literature.

Tamil Sangam literature named "Kurnthukai"¹ explain love between men and woman. Love is a force of attraction. Due to attraction of their mind, they choose their life partner themselves. Romantic marriage is a combination two minds of male and female. Romantic marriage is the marriage of two minds together to form the bond of marriage. The nature of combination is explained in sangam literature in detail.

"What could my mother be to yours?
What kin is my father to yours any way?
And now
Did you and I meet ever?
But in love our hearts have mingled
Like red earth and pouring rain"

Colorless rain water poured in red earth is changed as red in color. The red color could not be separated easily from water. Thus this enigmatic emotion has the potential of changing lives completely. It can be rightly concluded that love is the most important ingredient of life.

"Jataka Chandrikai"² is a text book of astrology. It explains the rules for checking the matrimonial adaptability or marriageable compatibility which is called "Marriage Matching" or "Match Making". The method of matching by porutthams (suitability) is based on the birth star of boy and girl. While explaining the marriageable compatibility, the author said that "The wise man should marry the woman to whom the mind fits. The feeling of love in the mind is better than the benefits mentioned in the matching the horoscope". Therefore it is understood that love marriages are better than arranged marriages.

Now a day's male and female romance is taking place considerably. Some romantic marriages take place with the consent of the parents. Romance and Love Marriages are not accepted by many parents. But such lovers neglect their parents and marry on their own.

Love marriage is better than arranged marriage

This is the best part of love marriage. Unlike arranged marriages where the person he/she tie the knot with is a stranger, in a love marriage he/she knows his spouse already. This means they are bound to have less awkward moments together. Eventually, when they get into a matrimonial relationship, they will be well-tuned to what their partner thinks and can plan their actions accordingly. Since they know each other well, they are well aware of each other's likes-dislikes, hobbies, and general life preferences. She will know how much sugar he likes in his tea, and he will be aware of which coffee she loves. This way, they can have a stable start. They will even save tons of time, which otherwise people in arranged marriage spend just to figure out each other. In a love marriage, you kick-off by planning for bigger and important things in your marriage, which individuals in arranged marriage are able to do only after couple of years spent understanding each other.

Government Law supports love

Romantic and love marriages are accepted the Government. Inter caste and inter religion love marriages are also agreed by the Government. Government has enacting separate laws for regularizing such marriages. Therefore romance and love marriage are raised considerably.

Love affair in Astrology

In traditional astrology planetary systems for love marriage have not been explained elaborately. In Tamil, "Jathaka Alankaram"³ a text book traditional astrology, written by "Keeranur Natarajan" explain the planet position for inter caste marriage.

In the birth chart, if the kalathirakaraka Venus is associated with Jupiter, the native will love a Bramin-woman. If Venus is associated with Sun and Mars, the native will love and live with Sakthriya-woman. If Venus is associated with moon and mercury the native will romance with a vysiya-woman. If Venus is associated with Saturn the native will romance with a Suthra-woman. If Venus is associated with Raghu and Kethu the native will romance with a Pulaiya- woman and marry with her.

“Jathaka Chindamani⁴” a text book traditional astrology in Tamil said that if the lord of Lagna (Ascendant) is deposited in the 7th house, the native possesses a desirable wife with precious jewels and wealth. Here desirable wife can be to mean falling love and getting married.

Signification of houses and planets love affair

Astrology consist twelve Bhavas (houses) to predict the life style of people. Among the twelve houses, 3th, 5th, 7th, and 11th houses are signification love affairs of the native.

Our ancestors mentioned the 3rd house denotes self confidence, courage, well-known personality, famous, good image and good name of the native.

5th house denotes sex, love, child birth, glamour, perspicacious, beauty and sentimental thoughts of native.

7th house is signification of life partner. 7th Bhava denotes the persons, who are in equal status with native and exchange of sexual relationship with opposite gender.

11th house stands as 5th of 7th house significates love and sexual pleasure offered by the life partner of the native of the horoscope.

The planet Venus represent life partner (wife) and lover of the native in the male horoscope. The planet Mars represent life partner (husband) and lover of the native in the female horoscope.

The Mercury act as a mediator. He will make good relationship friends and lovers. In Mahabharatha epic, a historical story of in India, the uncle of pandavas is Lord Sri Krishna who is the amsa of the Lord of Mercury.

Combinations of the above said lord of houses and planets creates love affairs and romance to the native of the horoscope.

20th century astrologer’s thoughts about Love affair

Guru Ramasubbu author of the text book “Jothidathil Thampathiya Vazhkai⁵” has said in his text about the love affair. 5th house, its associate planets and Venus bring relationships in life. But, both of them have to be enough strong to bring relationships in the native life. For example, if Venus is combusted or debilitated so there would be contacts with the opposite sex but that wouldn’t convert into a love relationship. The reason behind (not converting into love relationship) that will depend upon who is influencing Venus, and in which sign the Venus is. If the Sun is responsible so your ego would be the barrier, you won’t find enough room around to make the relationship easy. Lie this, according to the characteristics of planets, the relationship will suffer.

If there is combination of the lord of 7th house or Venus with the lord of 5th house in a horoscope, it give an opportunity to the native to speak and mingle with opposite sex easily without any hesitation. This kind of attitude leads native to fell in to love affair.

Experienced astrologers of current era also express that in Astrology Jupiter is the significator of judgment, real and unconditional love, the wisdom. Venus is the planet that is the significator of ‘sex’ and all kinds of physical comfort and luxury. Venus is an earthy natured or materialistic planet. Venus always likes to enjoy all kinds of materialistic happiness in the world.

Venusians guys are like that “hey, what are waiting for let’s have fun”. Always fun entertainment, and especially physical pleasure. Venus in Taurus is more physical satisfaction oriented than Venus in Libra. Because, the nature of Taurus is ‘earthy’ - means physical and stubborn, but the nature of Libra is ‘Air’ - means thinker and flexible.

Fifth house is all about love and Romance. Besides that, the 5th house is also the house of taking decisions, giving judgment, etc. If any malefic planet would be there in the 5th house, so the native would be incapable to take the right decisions. It affects their relationships also. In maximum cases the break-up of their relationship due to their own fault, sometimes they understand if Jupiter is strong in their own chart. If Jupiter is not strong so they always will keep finding faults with others without judging their own deeds. Jupiter's aspects always minimize the risk.

Venus and love

Venus is the cause of all pleasure available to one in this world. If Venus have good position in 1, 5, 9, 3, 7, 11 houses the native will enjoy all pleasure in honest way. If Venus have bad position in 6, 8, 12 houses the native will enjoy his pleasure in bad way improperly. Venus strength is very essential in the horoscope for romance. Venus will help one to love one another immensely. Radical attraction is also caused by Venus. The Venus is significations for all of these things, love, affection, sweet talk, merriment, pleasure, and mantel excitement. Therefore romantic marriage will take place with help of Venus only.

Venus and Mars

Strength of Mars is also essential for love marriage. Mars will give courage to express love of one to one another. If association Venus and Mars in a one house at the one and the same degree in a horoscope they will get love marriage without worrying about anything. People who born in the stars of Mars, chithirai and avita, are have naturally courageous. They do not hesitate to tell their love. Whatever the male or female horoscope, if Mars is in Scorpio then the love quest will be high. If Venus is in Scorpio they will dare to do anything for love. It is noteworthy that those who have the strength of Venus and Mars will live happily if they marry for love.

Raghu and Venus

If somehow Raghu joins Venus so the sexual hunger becomes higher and the native tries to fulfill his/her desire by hook or crook, it may be under the cover of love. His/her lover may think his/her partner is in real love with him/her but the objective of that person would be always to fulfill the sexual desire, once fulfilled, after that, they find a new partner again. It's a never - ending search. Actually why it happens just try to understand.

Rahu is the planet of 'illusion' (Mava), the planet is also called the planet of 'smoke'. It creates one kind of situation that would be always mysterious, it would look like something apparently but the reality would be far away the appearance. Raghu indicates obsessions as well.

When be obsessed with some thing, he is not bothered about the outcome an action. When is under the influence of Raghu then the native becomes obsessed with the partner with whom he/she is in a love relationship and if that connects the 7th house so they marry that partner, but after some days after coming out of the hangover, they start finding faults with their partners once whom they were obsessed about.

This is the reality. In Indian Mythology Raghu has been described as a bodiless existence. This is the sign of 'endless hunger', because Raghu doesn't have any stomach to digest or full, so these types of people do not say at all: "Hey, I am full, I do not need more". Instead, they always say, "hey, I am still hungry, give me more".

Raghu dominant people do not like to judge at all what they are doing, they always keep doing. If you ask them why they do so! They will probably answer: "I do not have the time to judge". Actually Raghu gives one kind of fire within a person that makes him/her always keep going or hankering after what he/she is hungry for.

If that energy is channelized properly so these types of people can rise in their life. But if that fire is not maintained properly so that will ruin him or her and whoever will come in contact with them.

But, remember, Jupiter's aspect of Raghu always minimizes all those evil qualities. In these types of cases where Jupiter is involved by its aspect - the native suddenly understands his/her fault and keeps away themselves from any kind of misdeed.

Kethu - Venus

Now, let's talk about Kethu. Kethu is the planet of 'everything burns into ashes', 'To maintain total secrecy'. Kethu has been described as a headless existence. When you think of nay headless person actually you mean to say the person does not think at all or there is no existence of that person now. Here both are correct with Kethu. That's why it signifies 'ash', which is similar to 'death' of any kind. Death means total darkness, total secret, it is very tough to know about death. That's why, the planet Kethu is called 'secret agent' also – that I mentioned earlier, and who is very difficult to catch. Now, when it comes to relationship or Love affair/Relationships Yogas in Horoscope how Kethu works, let's see:

If anybody's fifth house or Venus is somehow associated with Kethu, so, it would be very difficult to understand what the native actually think or do in his/her real life, how he sees relationships or love, romance.

He may have more than one secret relationship especially if there is a connection with 7th house or lord of 7th house / 12th house or lord of 12th house. Venus and Kethu combination always creates secret relationships. The native will be in a relationship of this kind at nay part of his/her life.

If the 5th house is afflicted badly by malefic planets and houses (6, 8, 12 house and their lords) won't last for long. It has to be checked while astrologers are judging the horoscope to see love affair/Relationships yoga in horoscope.

A love relationship will build up successfully or not that totally depends upon the connection between 1st, 5th, 11th house and lastly Venus.

Whether the relationship will remain intact or not that will depend upon Jupiter's association with them and without the influence of 'Dusthana House' or their lords – 6th, 8th and 12th. Jupiter or any benefic planet will give life to the relationship and "Dusthana Lord" will always ruin that or give death.

Combinations for establishing or breaking up of more than one love relationships

Venus is the known to be the Karaka planet of love. If Venus is in its debilitated sign in the horoscpe, then the native is likely to have more than one love relationships in his life.

More than one relationship is also established, if Saturn and Venus have a relationship with eachother in any form in the Navamsa (D9) or Rasi (D1). The possibility of having more than one relationship becomes strong when the relationship between Venus and Saturn is formed in the sixth or twelfth house.

A person will have multiple love affairs if a debilitated Venus is placed with Mars in a Navamsa (D9) and Rasi (D1). It is also possible if both of them are placed in each other's sign.

If Venus and Mars are placed in each other's signs in the Navamsa then too this can happen. The number of relationships may be more than one if Venus is placed only in Navamsa of Mars or Mars is placed only in Navamsa of Venus.

Time of love affair

Some planets also naturally propel the person towards a love affair when their Dasa is running during the young age of the native. Mercury is the Karaka planet of intelligence. The native mind becomes restless during the Dasa of Mercury. Therefore, there is a strong possibility of falling in love during its Dasa.

The Dasa of Raghu acts as a catalyst for love. The relationships established in this Dasa begin quickly and may be passionate, but they do not last for a long time. Raghu does not know the difference between right and wrong. Hence, a person becomes confused in the Dasa of Raghu.

Venus is considered the Karaka planet of love. A person is in search and need of love in the Dasa of Venus. Moon is the Karaka planet for the mind and heart. It is also considered a restless planet. Therefore, a person's mind and heart become restless and there is a strong possibility of falling in love during the Dasa of Moon too. Most love affairs begin in the Dasa of Mercury, Raghu, Venus and Moon irrespective of their placement in any house.

Planetary transit or "gocharam" will tell you about the month any year of any, - whether it is a matter or getting a new relationship or losing the existing one. That means, in which month you are going to get a love relationship or going to lose the existing one, that can be known from the transit of the above – mentioned planets.

Finally ‘Mahadasa’ and ‘Antardas’. Period of planets should be related to the 5th house or its lord and Venus. Where Raghu is always hankering after materialism, Ketu always keeps away himself from all those. Raghu does all for physical satisfaction but while Ketu is totally opposite to it.

Which house it stays it just burns all the materialism side of that house and shows the reality of ‘impermanence’. When Venus will join Ketu by its aspect or joining, the scenario will change a little, then the native will hanker for sex and relationship and when the relationship will come within a very short time he/she will become bored, all ‘relationship’ kind of things will appear to him/her as a meaningless thing and will finish the relationship or will create a situation where the relationship will to an end.

Again after some span of time he/she will feel for making a relationship and if it comes, again it will be finished. Actually, Venus is bringing relationships and Ketu is just ruining them. This kind of conflict is always going on – in their mind.
