INTRODUCTION

From the birth of the world till today someone is dominating somebody and influencing someone with authority. The situation is the same in the world of men and in the world of animals and birds. They express their anger to satisfy their need or longing for power and position.

In the days baby lone when. Astrology was used to predict future events and happenings to the kings and to the world. Then it was used to predict the future events of the individuals. The history of astrology records this. If one wants to get position and power in politics the planet in the horoscope should be in the exalted position.

Explanation

Though many millionaires are in the world a few people have fortune in Politics. Ruling yoga or Rajayoga is possible if certain planets are in a particular position – thus said the author of the Jathaka Pirugath Book. All cannot become Ministers and powerful people and rule the people (Rajayoga) only those who have certain planets in certain positions alone can enjoy power, position and popularity (Rajayoga).

In Saravalli Its author Kalyanavarman he asserts that some more planetary position decide the Rajayoga. This is the evidence to prove that the importance of Astrology has been in ascendancy.

The tenth bhava in astrology

In any birth chart the tenth house to Lagna or Rasi is very important because it explains how the native is going to live his life on earth.

The tenth house is called the Jeevanaisthanam, Rajgyisthanam and Karma Isthnam. The Lord of the tenth house is called Jeevanathipathy. Rajyathipathy and Karmathipathy.

If the tenth house planet is prominent the native will enjoy Rajayoga life and will be popular. He will enjoy all the conversions and privileges of the government. He will have fabulous wealth and enjoy a sophisticated life. He will donate to the poor and earn Virtues. He will possess ornaments and valuable jewels. He will enjoy all the comforts of life. Like car. He will have power, position, fame, popularity and influence. He will exercise his power and authority while ruling over the people.
